Forwarding so on your radar. Upcoming in May - You are on the panel with Dave Glatt. (This is in Bismarck, ND)

I didn't know if you wanted to schedule other events when you are out there. You are speaking at 3:00pm on May 23.

There is a flt that day that gets you in at 12:49pm but I didn't know if that was enough time for you to prep and get to the event?

No late flts back to Denver that same day, but there is one the morning of the 24th that leaves at 7:55 am, into Denver at 8:40am.

Kari forgot to send me the actual facility where this is being held, but I'll get that.
